REPLACEMENT SHEET

Determining an illumination scheme in response to the pattern 122

Directing, in response to the determination, at least one beam of radiation having a first cross-section towards an saturable absorber such as to allow a portion of said bean to propagate towards a radiation sensitive layer; wherein the portion has a second cross-section that is smaller than the first cross-section

120

FIG. 3